GoldQuest Mining Corp. is a Canadian based company developing its gold-copper Romero Project in the Dominican Republic.

The company is well-funded, and has the right leadership to progress the project forward. Development is on track, with a robust Pre-Feasibility Study (PFS) and Maiden Mineral Reserves published November 11th, 2016. GoldQuest has a highly prospective 50-km land package, whose brownfield and greenfield growth opportunities are unprecedented. With a strong management team and substantial growth potential, GoldQuest is well positioned to advance the project and increase the value for its shareholders.
