

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, March 27, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GoldQuest Mining Corp. (TSXV:GQC) (FRANKFURT:M1W) (BERLIN:M1W) ("GoldQuest" or the "Company") reports that it has been advised that the Penal Chamber of the First Instance Court of the Judicial District of San Juan de la Maguana (the "Court") has reached a decision (the "Decision") in response to a Constitutional Injunction Remedy filed by a group of individuals in the Dominican Republic against the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, GoldQuest Dominicana SRL.

The only information the Company has at this time regarding the Decision is a verbal summary of the Decision that was delivered by a Court clerk. The written Decision of the Court, including the reasons for the Decision, has not yet been issued and is expected in approximately one week. The summary of the Decision is unclear in a number of respects and the Company is seeking to clarify the Decision with the Court.

The summary of the Decision included a requirement that the Company suspend its activities at its Romero Project until certain certificates and licenses are issued in favor of the Company. The Company is seeking to clarify which certificates and licenses must be obtained before its activities can be re-commenced. In addition, based on the information currently available, the Company is not able to determine the extent of its activities that must be suspended or the exact area the Decision pertains to.

Once the Company has more information regarding the Decision it will work with its local counsel to consider its next steps and the possibility of challenging the Decision.

The Company will issue a further news release once it has additional information regarding the Decision.
